

Long Term Care for Elderly

International experience and challenges ahead of Poland

June 18, 2018. Ministry of Health, Warsaw

- DRAFT AGENDA -

8:30 Registration

9:00 Opening

- Zbigniew Król, Undersecretary of State, Ministry of Health
- Lidia Ułanowska, director of Senior Policy Department, Ministry of Family, Labor and Social Policy (TBC)
- Roberta Gatti, Chief Economist for Human Development Sectors, World Bank

9:30 The economic case for LTC policies in a changing labor market

Matteo Morgandi and Ali Bargu, World Bank: family caretaking duties of elderly and labor supply incentives in Poland

10:00 Coordination Models and Instruments of Long Term Care: International Experiences

- (I) Anne Baekgaard, Ministry of Health, Denmark: Provision of LTC in Denmark
- (II) Ulrich Dietz, Ministry of Health, Germany: LTC in Germany

11:15 Coffee break

- (III) Ana-Maria Munoz, World Bank: integrating LTC systems – example of Chile
- (IV) Julie Latourelle, Ministry of Health, France: LTC in France
- (V) Rait Kuuse, Ministry of Social Affairs, Estonia: Estonia's recent reform experience

12:30 Lunch

1:30 Financing Long Term Care (1)

- (I) Tiago Cravooliveira, OECD: LTC Financing in a comparative perspective
- (II) Emilia Skrok, World Bank: Review of Long Term Care expenditures at the local level in Poland

2:30 Coffee break

2:45 Financing Long Term Care (2)

- (III) Julie Latourelle: The case of France: Targeted cash benefits for LTC financing
- (IV) Ulrich Dietz: The case of Germany: Public LTC insurance
- (V) Anne Baekgaard: The case of Denmark: In-Kind Benefits

Discussion

4:15 Closing

Anna Koziel, Senior Health Specialist, World Bank